THE BOARD OF TRADE

Discussed Many Matters of Public Interest at Yesterday's Meeting

The Edmonton board of trade met in the council chamber yesterday afternoon at four o'clock and discussed important affairs.

There were present: Vice President A. T. Cushing, Secretary F. T. Fisher, and Messrs. Garvey, Clendenen, Round, Fitzgerald, May, Howells, F. Gray, R. Kenneth, C. W. Strath, and others.

A communication was received from the Calgary board of trade enclosing a copy of a letter sent by them to the Minister of Trade and Commerce, regarding the establishment of a separate grain inspection district in Alberta, cutting off any connection with the district of Manitoba, and also insisting on the Alberta toll and on winter wheat as "Alberta Red" not as "Winter Red". The Calgary board wished to have the support of the Edmonton board of trade in the matter, and suggested that they write the Minister of Trade and Commerce giving their support to the proposal.

It was thought better to leave the matter in the hands of a committee composed of all the members who were engaged in the grain milling business, and a motion was carried to that effect.

The secretary of the Calgary board of trade also wrote in reference to the proposal of the C.P.R. to raise a seed grain demonstration train and hold demonstration meetings at various points throughout the West. Enclosed was a copy of the resolution passed by the Calgary board in regard to the proposal, and also a press bulletin issued by them. The co-operation of the Edmonton board was invited to make the scheme a success. The communication was received favorably by those present and Secretary Fisher was instructed to take what action might be necessary.

A. F. Jeary, Canadian Government Agent at Liverpool, had written some time ago to Mr. Fisher, asking for a large supply of the pamphlets issued recently by the board entitled "Prosperity and fertility." Mr. Fisher read the communication and said that there were not many of the pamphlets left. He wanted the opinion of the board on the advisability of issuing more. The money now in the treasury had been appropriated for other purposes, and therefore there was not sufficient to pay for more pamphlets. The matter was left over until next meeting.

The question of the shortage of funds brought up the matter of the payment of the expenses of the five delegates who had attended the Regina convention, $240 being required. It was suggested that the city council be asked for a grant to cover the amount lacking. Vice President Cushing objected to this. He had been one of the delegates at the time the council was approached for the grant of $2500, and the council had been promised that they would not be approached again for a grant.

It was finally decided to leave the matter in the hands of the President and Secretary to make arrangements with the bank for an overdraft.

The matter of making provision for city parks in future was then discussed. It was unanimously agreed something should be done immediately to secure grounds for parks. Mr. May said that the longer it was put off the harder it would be to secure grounds. The secretary was instructed to write the city council impressing them with the advisability of taking immediate action in the matter.

The question was also brought up of securing tracts of lands for factory sites, where track facilities could be secured, and which could be sold or leased at reasonable rates to parties desiring to start manufactures. Secretary Fisher said that several parties who were thinking of starting a pork packing establishment in Edmonton, had visited him lately. They were satisfied with the market and shipping facilities, but when it came to securing a site at a reasonable price, and where track facilities could be secured, they had failed to find what they wanted. If land could be bought and controlled by either the board or the city council, and track facilities arranged for, it was possible that manufacturers could be induced to locate in Edmonton. The matter was referred to the council of the board of trade.

Considerable discussion ensued on the system of assessment and taxation. R. Kenneth of the Edmonton Tent and Mattress Factory, said that he was being taxed $1. per square foot on the space where he sold his goods, and $2. where the goods were manufactured. Mr. Cushing thought that the taxation should not be so high on floor space where men were employed

STARTLE CIVILIZED WORLD

Jewish Massacres in Russian Cities Arouse Disgust of the Powers

London, Nov. 14.—Universal abhorrence and disgust is being expressed by every country at Russian atrocities against the Jews. The Jewish quarters in forty-one towns have been burned and the inhabitants killed or tortured. The barbarities far exceed anything ever done by the Turks. The United States is collecting $1,000,000 to send to the sufferers and a similar amount is being sent from Great Britain. There is a threat of sending a fleet into the Black Sea to force the Russians to treat the Jews properly.

MUTINEERS CONDEMNED. Cronstadt, Nov. 14.—The mutineers have been condemned to death. Martial law obtains in Poland and the Poles are on the verge of revolution.

SOME OF THE MAJORITIES

The majorities in the constituencies so far as known, are as follows: Strathcona, Trenchard 311. Edmonton, Gutter 550. Calgary, Collins 311. Medicine Hat, Finlay 37. Banff, Fisher, 139. Leduc, Telford, 80. Cardston, Woolf, 78. Macleod, McKenzie, 205. High River, Robertson, 15. Lacombe, Puffer 52. Gleichen, Stuart 34. Lethbridge, De Veber, 156. Pincher Creek, Macellus 120. Red Deer, Moore, 29. Sturgeon, Boyle, 507. Stony Plains, McPherson, 148. Victoria, Walker, 507. Vermilion, McCauley 334. Athabasca, Bredin, (acclamation.) Ponoka, McLeod, 114. Innisfail, the. Rosebud, Hiebert (Conservative) 34. St. Albert, McKenney, 22. Wetaskiwin, Rosenroth 250.

SCRUTINY IN GLEICHEN

At the scrutiny of challenged votes held in Gleichen Saturday, three of the challenged votes were allowed, and two were disallowed. C. A. Stuart acted in his own interests, and W. L. Waines acted for the Conservative candidate.

KILLED IN CALGARY

The coroner's inquest on the death of William Henderson who was killed in the C.P.R. yards, Calgary, on Saturday, was held in the city hall, Monday evening, by Dr. Crawford, the coroner.

Several witnesses were called and gave evidence as to how the accident occurred. The evidence of Dr. Benson and Dr. Masco, who performed the post mortem examination, was also taken, but the jury decided not to give a verdict until they had seen the state of affairs at the yard for themselves. The inquest was therefore adjourned until nine o'clock Tuesday.

It is probable that the jury will make a recommendation that the C.P.R. change the present location of their tracks.

In manufacturing goods as on ordinary store space, Mr. May thought the present system a good one.

The president and Mr. Kenneth were appointed a committee to look into the matter of assessment upon workshops and manufactures and report at next meeting.

It was suggested that a fuller organization of the board should take place. Mr. Cushing thought that there would be a fuller attendance of members if the board were better organized. Messrs. Cushing, Round and Clendenen were appointed to get information regarding plans for a fuller organization of the board. Mr. Fisher said that the annual report had been printed at considerable cost last year, and wished to know whether the members wished it published this year. It was not a regular thing to have the report published. The question was left in the hands of the President and Secretary. The meeting then adjourned.

THE CALGARY FIGHT

OVER CHALLENGED BALLOTS

None of the Disputed Ballots Will be Opened Until the Lists Have Been Gone Through

It is feared from Calgary today that the struggle in the court of revision at present wages over the question of what ballots shall or shall not be counted. The voter whose vote was challenged appears before the court, and gives evidence before the disposition to be made of the ballot is determined. None of the accepted ballots will be opened until all those challenged have been considered. It is impossible therefore to forecast the result, and the conflicting rumors of gains for the respective candidates are founded purely on supposition of the political stripe of the voters whose ballots are accepted or rejected by the court.

Commenting on the proceedings of the court the Albertan says: Nearly two hundred votes were disposed of by the different Courts of Revision yesterday, which means nearly half of the large number of challenged votes.

Of this number about fifteen per cent were not allowed, most of the disallowed not putting in an appearance. Today will be a field day and by night there will be very few which have not been disposed of, as far as the deputies and the magistrates can dispose of them.

As to the result that is a different question. The Liberals are confident that they have gained about twenty votes net. The Conservatives believe that they have made considerable gains.

An independent person who viewed the controversy from an independent standpoint would conclude that the battle from the beginning is very much of the drawn order, and that neither party has any right to claim very much of a lead.

Little that is definite can be learned until the final count, when this part of the proceedings is at an end.

In the meantime the good looking majority of thirty-three stands and has probably been increased a few votes, and it is pretty certain that it has not been reduced any.

The Brackman-Ker Milling Co. are removing their warehouse from the corner of Athabasca and First, to a position north of the C. N. R. station grounds in order to secure track facilities.

A REGINA MORALIZER

The Regina Standard moralizes at considerable length on the fate of Alberta Conservatives for the purpose of emphasizing the superior wisdom of their Saskatchewan brethren in divesting themselves of their party identity.

So far as the monologue can be reduced to tangible form the argument of the Standard appears to be that the Opposition lost in Alberta.

1st. Because the Government was the Opposition.

2nd. Because the Opposition was the Opposition.

3rd. That the Saskatchewan Conservatives have hopes of a better fate because they are travelling in disguise, and by so doing make "room" for Independents and genuine Liberals to work with them in the campaign directed immediately and ostensibly against the Provincial Government, but indirectly and ultimately against the Federal Administration.

Reviewing the Alberta contest the Standard says:

There is little cause for surprise in the crushing defeat which the conservative party, under the leadership of Mr. R. B. Bennett, sustained in the first Provincial elections in Alberta on Thursday.

A certain amount of power over the electors is wielded by the government of the day, and that is no small factor in a new country. The fact that the Rutherford Government was in close alliance with the Ottawa Administration, gave it additional strength. It was composed of representative men, most of whom were well known to the people, and the organization behind it was in splendid shape. It was aided by the foreign vote, and by the floating vote, and when it is considered that the normal majority in Alberta, under present conditions, is strongly Liberal, it is no matter for wonder that the new ministry swept the day. There is reason to be rather surprised that even one of the Conservative candidates should have been successful.

So far as the Government is concerned the Regina critic has gathered observations from its recollection and re-hashes the worn-out fable of the Federal Government joining hands with the Provincial Government in exerting upon the electors some unexplained and unspecified power which leads them to return the Provincial Government with an overwhelming majority.

That the Federal Government has an influence in the West may be frankly admitted—the influence begotten in the public mind by the insinuation of a sane and energetic policy of western development. And if this influence contributed to the result in Alberta in any measure it was because the Opposition in forcing the campaign on distinctively Federal issues brought the attitude and policy of the Federal Government under fire and in so doing encountered the resentment of the public for the opponents of that attitude and policy.

That the Provincial Government had a power over the electorate has been the consistent contention of Alberta Liberals—the power merited and won by a policy of peace, progress and prosperity for Alberta.

Dealing with the Alberta Opposition the Standard sizes up the case thus:

The defeat of the Conservatives is to be regretted on account of their platform in the campaign. The planks of which it was composed were sound, and it is a pity that the principles enunciated therein should have been temporarily defeated by forces of untoward conditions and the power of machine manipulation. But no pity is due to the Conservatives themselves. They invited defeat by their silly insistence upon the worship of a party name. To them the existence and reputation of the Conservative party were more important than the welfare of the province which they sought to govern. Under such circumstances they deserved to be overwhelmed. The time has not yet come when the interests of any party in the state are superior to the interests of the state itself. The Conservatives of Alberta might easily have sunk their party pride for the sake of combining all elements of the community in a fight against coercion and oppression on the part of Ottawa politicians. They had nothing to lose by so doing, as the result of the election shows. They had everything to gain, for they had an opportunity of testing the real opinion of the electors on a series of subjects of vital importance to the Province. The opportunity has been lost, and the Alberta Conservatives are a mass of political debris.

The attack of the Standard is made on the ground that the Alberta Conservatives declined to secrete their identity, lower their banner, gather to themselves the irreconcilable and the disgruntled and head the motley horde in a stampede for power.

The incidental admission, that only by divesting themselves of all semblance of their real character and record could the Saskatchewan Conservatives enlist the assistance of the Independents and dissatisfied Liberals, will scarcely be considered as an unimpeachable compliment.

Nor is there much improvement in the further admission that for the sake of this society and in the hope of grasping power the Saskatchewan Conservatives tore down the flag under which their fathers fought.

To everyone according to his taste. The Standard is welcome the company of its masked associates. Alberta needs and wants no such outfit. Whatever Alberta Conservatives may be and whatever their mistakes may have been, they were not political brigands.

A SMALL BOY'S ESSAY

The Higginsville Leader prints this true and delightful essay on newspapers and their editors:

"In a little country school not far from Princeton, literary exercises are regularly indulged in every Friday afternoon during the term. A twelve-year-old boy read an original essay on The Newspaper. The latter-day youthful Solomon treated his subject thus:

"Newspapers are sheets of paper on which stuff to read is printed. The men look over the paper to see if their names is in it, and the women use it to put on shelves and such. I don't know how newspapers came into the world, I don't think God does. The Bible says nothing about editors, and I never heard of one being in heaven. I guess the editor is the missing link them fellers talk about. The first editor I ever heard of was the feller who wrote on the flood. He has been here ever since. Some editors belong to church and some don't. All of them raise hell in their neighborhood, and all of them are liars, at least I know, and I only know one. Editors never die. At least I never saw a dead one. Sometimes the paper dies and the people feel glad, but someone starts it up again. Editors never went to school, because editors never got licked. Our paper is a mighty poor one, but we take it so that ma can use it on her pantry shelves. Our editor don't amount to much, but pa says he had a poor chance when he was a boy. He goes without underclothes in the winter, wears no socks and has a wife to support him. Pa has not paid his subscription for five years, and don't intend to.

Four bottles of Shilo cured me. I have given it to several people and every one of them have been cured.—D. Jacobs, St. Francis, Que."

A DYING MAN

TURNED FROM HOSPITAL

Coroner's Jury at Red Deer Considers Action of Hospital Staff

(Red Deer Advocate)

The facts brought out last Saturday at the adjourned inquest on the body of John Matson, revealed a most scandalous state of affairs as to the way dying persons may be treated by certain officials at the hospital.

The inquest was held Friday 3rd Nov. Dr. Donovan, coroner presiding. The jury sworn were W. C. Cowell, (foreman), S. M. Bannerman, W. S. Jealous, E. V. Cook, M. Wilson, and J. J. Montgomery.

After the jury had viewed the body and taken evidence of identification, they adjourned until the following day.

At the adjourned inquest Mrs. Matson, widow of deceased, Peter Tolvanen, Dr. Parsons, who had made a post mortem examination and Joe Lepere gave evidence. The last named stated that he drove to the hospital with John Matson as he could not leave the sick man in the r.g. unsupported, and leave the team, he called out loudly for some one to come out and assist him. The staff showed themselves at one of the windows, but took no further notice. After waiting about five minutes, during which time the man appeared to be in great agony, the witness jumped out and went to the door and rang the door bell, and after a further loss of time, he thought all the staff appeared at the door and one enquired what he wanted. He replied he had been sent up with a sick man, and the reply was made that they could not admit him without a doctor's order. The witness believed the man was dying. The lady said she could not help it if he died. After the witness had further beseeched them to admit the man, and the person there refusing, he went back to the rig. The man in the meantime had fallen off the seat into the bottom of the rig and lay there motionless heavily. The witness drove back to town, and upon reaching Dr. Parsons, the Dr. pronounced the man dead. The witness thought the man died at the bottom of the hill after they had been refused admission into the hospital.

After a short retirement the jury returned the following verdict: "That John Matson died from natural causes, and we wish to add to our verdict that we cannot but express our strong condemnation of the officials of the hospital who refused admission to a dying man because an order for his admission was not first obtained. The man ought to have been admitted to a waiting room, stimulants administered, and a doctor instantly sent for."

STRATHCONA NEWS

Strathcona, Nov. 13.—Under the auspices of the Epworth League the Methodist congregation had a social evening in their church on Monday evening. The choir was present and gave several selections. Dr. Keena, late of Brantford, Ont., was introduced to the pastor and made a brief but spicy address. The doctor has taken up his residence here and intends practicing his profession in Strathcona. John Blair has returned to Strathcona after an absence of more than three months in Ponoka, Lacombe and vicinity for the Fletcher Scale Co.

T. C. Osborne, of Cooking Lake, who has been for several weeks suffering from a poisoned foot has so far recovered as to be able to return to his farm.

Excavations are being made for water and sewer services from the town hall east to west Railway street, and thence south to Whyte avenue, where it is expected work will cease for the season.

Men are engaged removing the wooden water pipes from the skating rink to Mr. Walter's barn on Main street, so that the rink may be ready for action as soon as the frost comes.

Mayor Davies, Councillor Carmichael, Dr. Fuller and Mr. Bedard purposes leaving Tuesday morning, Nov. 14, on a hunting expedition. They intend going in the vicinity of the Pembina River. They expect to be away about ten days.

Con. Magee of town is remodelling his store-house near Councillor Carmichael's blacksmith shop, to be used as a livery stable.

Mr. McDonald, late of B.C. and Mr. Martin of town have just returned from a ten day's trip to the Pembina River.

WESTERN VICES

Toronto, Nov. 11. "It is easy to throw our caps in the air and prate about the resources and boundlessness of the west, but let us face the situation and realize that there is a tide of evil sweeping over its grassy plains."

This is from the Rev. Prof. Kilpatrick, speaking on "Home Missions in the West," before last night's public meeting of Knox College Students Missionary society. He started by a sympathetic and graphic account of the hardships and solid manliness of young missionaries laboring unaided on the cheerless stretches west of the great lakes.

"The opening up of the west has been of immense material moment to us," said Dr. Kilpatrick. "That is a debt the east owes the west. Every one on its fertile tracts is after bread and wealth. Here exists the danger of rank materialism and of the setting up of a new standard of success and endeavor."

"What is the great fault of the west?" interrogated Dr. Kilpatrick. "Many will say it is strong drink, but is not that more effect than cause, and incidental to certain races and conditions? Believe me, the most threatening danger is want of truth and reliability. Our people are doomed as surely as were those of Babylon and Venice, unless the passion for righteousness inflames their hearts."

St. Petersburg, Nov. 14.—The announcement of the reform manifesto has reached Vladivostok, Yonisk and other extreme points of the Empire. The uprising at Vladivostok is quite critical. Many persons have been killed and foreigners have taken refuge on ships in the harbor. Public buildings, stores, and business houses were sacked and burned. Six governors, including the governor of Odessa, have been dismissed for failing to suppress disorders by White.

THE SUNLIGHT WAY

Sunlight Soap is better than other soaps, but is best when used in the Sunlight way (follow directions).

Hard rubbing and boiling are things of the past in homes where Sunlight Soap is used as directed.

Sunlight Soap will not injure even the daintiest fabric or the hands, and the clothes will be perfectly white, woollens soft and fluffy.

The reason for this is because Sunlight Soap is absolutely pure, contains no injurious chemicals—indeed, nothing but the active, cleansing, dirt-removing properties of soap that is nothing but soap.

Equally good with hard or soft water.

YOUR MONEY REFUNDED
by the dealer from whom you buy Sunlight Soap if you find any cause for complaint.

WINNIPEG MARKETS

[From the Commercial]

Trade in Manitoba wheat in the Winnipeg Market has shown a good demand most of the time. Prices seem to be influenced more by the fluctuations in the American market than by anything else, although the large bulk of wheat must go for export. The lake freight situation is seriously against prices. Owing to delay in unloading at the other side vessels lose at least one trip out of three they could make, and freight rates are higher in consequence, the rate now being 50 per bushel as compared with 26 at the beginning of October. The increase in freight rates decreases the price of wheat at this end. Today's prices are: No. 1 hard, 81c; No. 1 northern, 77 3/4c; No. 2 northern, 75 1/2c; No. 3 northern, 73 1/2c; spot or delivery first half November. Futures on the option market closed, Nov. 77 5/8c; Dec. 75 5/8c; May, 81c. All prices are for in store Fort William and Port Arthur.

KING EDWARD AT SIXTY-FIVE

(Toronto Globe)

Today Edward VII begins the sixtieth year of his age; he will soon have completed the fifth of his reign. During these five years he has by his ability, industry, tact, and good humor greatly intensified his popularity with the people of his own country and established a high reputation abroad for statesmanship and diplomacy. Ordinarily it is dangerous for a British Monarch to try to carry out any line of public policy, however well he may be adapted for the task, but King Edward seems quite able to avoid Scylla without falling into Charybdis; to accomplish high political aims without arousing the fears or evoking the protests of the most suspicious guardians of the rights of the subject.

It is a source of gratification to his own people that he has been able as a peacemaker to do much for the good of the world at large without either brandishing "a big stick" or shaking a "mailed fist." Exactly how he accomplishes it will never be fully known, but there can be no doubt that his personality counts for much, and his altruistic purposes for still more. Rightly or wrongly, the great majority of foreigners regard him as the unselfish Monarch of a magnanimous nation—the only nation that throws open its costly Crown colonies to the enterprising foreign traders without retaining any advantage for its own industrial and commercial operators.

In his informal diplomatic relations with foreign nations the King has an immense advantage in being related by either blood or marriage to a wide circle of royal connections. The Emperor of Germany is his nephew, and the Czar of Russia is his niece. The King of Portugal is a far-off cousin. The King of Greece and the heir apparent to the throne of Denmark are the Queen's brothers, while the Dowager-Empress of Russia is her sister. The new King of Norway is his son-in-law, and is also the Queen's nephew. Through the marriage of his brothers and sisters he stands in more distant but by no means unimportant relation to the members of a still wider circle. Such a series of family connections might easily embarrass a less tactful diplomat, but King Edward seems able to turn them all to account.

While it is impossible to say precisely how much he has been able to accomplish, he is credited with not a few achievements to which he could probably make good his title if he cared more for prestige than he does for success. The belief is widespread and inveterate that to him is mainly due the understanding with France over the whole of Africa—including Egypt and the Sudan, as well as Morocco and Congo. Because he is persona grata to both the Emperor of Japan and the Emperor of Russia, he has probably had a good deal to do with bringing them together in a lasting peace. As one of the guarantors by treaty of the independence of the recent dual Scandinavian monarchy he would naturally be consulted about the separation of Norway from Sweden, and about the selection of a King for the former country; it is not surprising that the choice has fallen on a prince who is both his own son-in-law and the grandson of his father-in-law. The new treaty with Japan must have had his official approval, if it was not the result of his suggestion. And if a good understanding regarding India and Persia is arrived at with Russia it will be difficult to make the people of Great Britain believe that he had little or nothing to do with bringing it about.

It is not hard to explain his exceptional popularity with all classes of his subjects. His strong common sense, personal courage, freedom from affectation, official dignity, unflinching tact, and political impartiality enable him to keep on good terms with every element of his varied environment. The fierce light that beats on the throne shows that its occupant is in all respects one of the common people, whose opinion of any new situation would be the opinion of the vast majority of his countrymen. They see him constantly taking a keen personal concern in what interests them, and feeling himself most at home when he is able to go about among them as an ordinary gentleman does. At his age, and with his physique and preoccupations, he should be regarded for another decade and a half of active performance of royal duties. If he lives and reigns till he is an octogenarian both he and his people will be able to say in all sincerity that he has brought them "lasting good." May these things be.

The selection of tobacco takes time and great care—the conditions of its growth, the soil, the planting, and the cultivation, must all be considered.

I have studied tobacco from the seed to the cigar. I have a thorough knowledge of the qualities grown on the different plantations in the Manicagua district of Cuba, where the best tobaccos are produced. It is from the best of these plantations that I buy the filler of my Pharaoh Cigar.

I was the first manufacturer in Canada to use Manicagua tobacco. It proved such a winner that the tobacco agents in New York sell thousands of boxes of tobacco under that name that was never within one hundred miles of the district.

I visit these plantations every season, and personally select the tobacco I buy. The growers there call me a tobacco crank because I am so careful and particular in the selection of my tobacco. I would rather be thought a crank than jeopardize the quality of my Pharaoh cigar.

I know that every time you smoke a Pharaoh cigar you will thank me for being a tobacco crank—that is full recompense for my trouble and care.

None genuine unless branded "Pharaoh." Price 10 cents.

The Cream Separator that is the Cheapest in the End.

There are some folks who are everlastingly trying to get "something for nothing." They buy a wagon at a "bargain" price because the agent says it's "just as good." And then, after a few months, when the tires and spokes have all loosened up, they cast the wagon.

Price isn't the only difference.

It's the same way with cream separators. You can buy many other separators for less money than the U. S. Cream Separator sells for, but before you're finished paying for the experiment you'll find price isn't the only difference. The cheaper separators soon get out of adjustment because built of cheaper material by inferior manufacturing methods; they consume twice the necessary amount of oil; they have a hood that will not seal true, and does not skim clean. The repairs in the first few years would pay the difference for the U. S. Cream Separator.

Durability is important.

The U. S. Cream Separator has stood the test of time. Many of them have been in use for 10 years, and cost less than a dollar for repairs. They run easy, skim cleaner than others, have a simple hood, enclosed gears, and a convenient low supply can.

"SEED GRAIN" TRAINS

The C. P. R. have issued the following circular:

Early in the year, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company began to look up the excellent educational work that has been done south of the line in the matter of improved seed grain and good roads by means of special trains carrying expert lecturers, as well as object lessons, making stops along the line, and addressing the advertised meetings on the particular object of the mission. The first "gospel train" sent out was one on the M. & St. L. Ry. in the State of Iowa in 1897. The Rock Island rapidly followed suit as did also the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and the Illinois Central.

Since that time the movement has grown to large proportions and the C.P.R. has now announced its intention to introduce the innovation in the prairie provinces and will send out a train early in the new year devoted to the cause of "clean farms" and improved seed grain. A meeting was arranged in Winnipeg recently between Vice-President Whyte, W. B. Lunnigan and representatives of the Grain Growers' Associations, and the various Departments of Agriculture, at which the proposal was fully discussed and at a meeting of the Calgary board of trade, where the scheme was submitted by Mr. J. S. Dennis in behalf of the railway, a resolution was passed unanimously endorsing the proposal and agreeing to assist the company in its publicity campaign.

It would be interesting to estimate the amount of loss sustained by the farmers of the west by reason of defective seed. It would figure into the millions in some seasons. It is perhaps safe to state that this great leak on the western farm is only equalled by that caused by the ever present weed. Almost the entire crop of Alberta has been damaged in wet seasons simply through bad seed, and very little attention is paid on the ordinary farms to rational selection of seed so vitally necessary to preserve our present high average yields.

The fertile soil of Western Canada is peculiarly favorable to the multiplication of weeds. Cases have occurred where otherwise valuable lands infested with the notorious stinkweed had been sold for taxes as the owners had given up all hope of successfully coping with this pest. That weedy farms are confined to a settled districts is a very popular belief. Every locality in the West, however, is infested more or less and active steps must be taken to nip the evil in the bud, and the proposed effort of the C. P. R. is an important step in the right direction.

It is expected that the train will start out during the second week of January for the Province of Alberta, visiting Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Raymond, Cardston, Macleod, Pincher Creek, Lebans, Claresholm, Nanton, High River, Okotoks, Calgary, Didsbury, Carstairs, Olds, Innisfail, Red Deer, Lacombe, Wetaskiwin, Ponoka, Edmonton, Gleichen, Langdon, and Shepard. The train will then proceed to the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, and visit all important points there, a schedule of which will be published later.

Prosperous agricultural conditions in the West must be maintained at any cost and one way to insure this desirable state of affairs is to give the wisest possible publicity to the forth-coming meetings. It is refreshing to see a great railroad corporation descending from its pedestal, and show a desire to help the farmer to help himself, and ultimately the railroad. For the prosperous farmer makes the prosperous railroad.

Everyone should assist in this movement, the success of which depends entirely on the attendance of these meetings. The lecturers will be the very best obtainable and the fact that all the powerful forces in the country, the governments, the farmers' organizations, the press, the railroads and the boards of trade have joined forces to push the scheme, is a guarantee that "things will happen."

Amongst the speakers secured for the meeting in question are—Prof. Fletcher L.L.D., Dominion Botanist and Entomologist, the foremost expert on weeds and their eradication. Dr. Fletcher is also one of the most ready and entertaining speakers in Canada on agricultural subjects. Angus Mackay Superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Farm at Lacrosse Head, will also accompany the party. Mr. Mackay is always popular on the platform. His vast fund of agricultural information and common sense appeals forcibly to the western farmer. It is expected that David Clark, Chief Grain Inspector, will take part in the meetings. Mr. Horne is a new addition to Western instructors. His experience has, however, been wide and varied and he ought to have a considerable amount of information to contribute. Mr. Clark, Dominion Seed Commissioner, is also accompanying the train. Mr. Clark will give expert advice on seed selection and will demonstrate by samples the beneficial effect of his practice. It is quite certain that the farmers of the West have a treat in store for them and that the meetings will be well attended all along the line.
